Please ensure you have provided us with the relevant contact details in the Your Organisation section to enable us to contact you through your preferred method(s)

You can update your marketing preferences or stop receiving marketing from us at any time by writing to us at Regent House, Regent Street, Mansfield, Nottinghamshire NG18 1SS, calling us on 01623 676300, visiting any of our branches, completing the online form at mansfieldbs.co.uk or by following the instructions on how to update your preferences in any marketing email or other communication that you receive from us.

Application Submission and Support

All applications are considered by a panel that includes independently appointed members of the Society. The panel meets twice yearly in May and November and priority will be given to first time applications. This ensures that all requests are dealt with fairly and equally and that we can plan an even distribution of support throughout the year.

Please note therefore that we may be unable to deal with short term requests.

If you require assistance with your Community Support Scheme application form please email community@mansfieldbs.co.uk with the subject line Community Support Scheme.
